

Bronchoscopy

Bronchoscopy is an endoscopic procedure that allows Dr. Bagheri to visualize the inside of the airways for diagnostic and therapeutic purposes. An instrument called the bronchoscope is inserted through the nose and down the throat to reach the lungs.

The procedure is done at the endoscopy unit at Grossmont Hospital.